

Griff Garner, University City Kiwanis Club member, delivers a check to the Nicaraguan orphanage that our club supports each year.

Pictured in this photo are: Orphan boys from Los Cedros and Jinotega orphanages, both Globe International orphanages in Nicaragua, along with the director of the Jinotega orphanage Miss Joy Pulsifer. This ministry currently runs two orphanages for 43 children as well as facilitates mission teams from the United States.

Also included in the picture with Griff Garner are his wife Christie Garner and daughter and son-in-law Amie and Jeremy Miles. Griff and Christie were visiting their daughter and son-in-law who are working as missionaries there. Jeremy is working in the hospital as part of his residency training through Duke University and Amie is working as a translator within the orphanage and also has a medical background.
